

Bills introduced by Delegate Vivian Watts in 2011 that were passed and signed into law.

HB 1629 Requires the Department of Game and Inland Fisheries to enforce no parking violations as a parking violation not as a criminal trespass.

HB 1747 Clarifies that law-enforcement agencies can possess child pornography as evidence.

HB 1893 Brings human trafficking fully under Virginia's abduction and kidnaping laws. (Anyone who participates in any way to bring about an abduction is as guilty as the person who actually holds the person and – as it relates to most human trafficking – the penalty is 20 years to life. Abduction of any one under 18 for the purpose of manufacturing child pornography was added to Virginia law. In addition, where a connection to an abduction can't be proven, anyone who benefits from making anyone engage in forced labor or services, concubinage, prostitution, or the manufacture of any obscene material or child pornography can be sentenced to 2 to 10 years in prison.) *

Bills introduced by Delegate Vivian Watts in 2010 that were passed and signed into law.

HB 222 Allows Springfield Mall and Tysons Corner to be developed using urban road standards that are pedestrian-friendly and increase access to the Metro Station.

HB 227 Puts the school – not the court – in control of establishing the conditions under which a person on the sex offender registry may be on school grounds.

HB 228 Removes the problem that couples had in getting annual car tax relief if they transferred their car to a revocable living trust so it wouldn't be tied-up in probate after they died.

HB 346 Comprehensively revises the Small Estate Act to allow many to avoid the cost and delay of probate. (An heir can get immediate access to an account un $2,400 in addition to being able to pay funeral expenses of up to $3,500. After 60 days, an heir can gain access to assets of up to $15,000 and no financial institution can deny access to assets of up to $50,000 if all heirs agree in writing.)

HB 349 Allows the vice chairs as well as the chairs of the Board of Veteran Services, the Joint Leadership Council, and the Veteran Services Foundation to represent their organizations on each others boards.

HB 468 Removes the prohibition on paying a community resident to handle homeowner association financial records; eliminates volunteers having to be certified as if they were professionals; and ensures there will be a representative of volunteer-run HOAs on the state regulatory board.

HB 1232 Creates a special license plate for supporters of the Washington Capitals hockey team.
